South-Carolina, ſſ.

By the Honourable

WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

Proclamation.

WHereas it hath been repreſented unto me, that many Perſons are inclined to tranſport themſelves from North-Britain into this Province, provided that a good commodious Tract of Land be firſt ſet a-part and reſerved for their Uſe only. AND WHEREAS it hath been found by Experience, that the ſettling of his Majeſty's Townſhips, and other vacant Lands, hath been of very great Advantage to this his Province, and therefore this Government is willing and deſirous to take any proper Meaſures which may be conducive to that End.

I HAVE therefore by and with the Advice of his Majeſty's Honourable Council thought proper to iſſue this my Proclamation, to give publick Notice, thtall that Tract of Land lying to the North Side of Santee-River from Jack's-Creek to the Wateree Townſhip, and ten Miles back, being about Eighty Miles from Charleſtown, is from the Date hereof, for the Space of Two Years, ſet a-part and reſerved for Proteſtants of North Britain only, and that no Survey made by any Deputy Surveyor within the ſaid Limits ſhall be allowed without a ſpecial Warrant for that Purpoſe, to the Uſe of ſuch North-Britons, only under my Hand and Seal, or of the Commander in Chief for the time being, all Perſons therefore are hereby ſtrictly prohibited and forbid to run any Lands within the Limits of the ſaid Tract, as they or any of them ſhall anſwer the Contrary at their Peril.

Given under my Hand and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Charleſtown in the Province aforeſaid, the 21*ſt Day of* December, Anno Domini, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Thirty-nine, & in the Thirteenth Year of His Majeſty's Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

By His Honour's Command, Ja: Michie Secr.

WILLIAM BULL.

CHARLES-TOWN, Dec. 29.

On Sunday laſt arrived here Capt. John Hooper from Poole, by whom we have in the publick Prints, the following freſh Advices.

LONDON, October 22.

To-morrow Morning War will be declared againſt Spain, purſuant to his Majeſty's Royal Warrant for that Purpoſe; the Ceremony of which is to be in the following Manner, viz At Ten o'Clock the Officers of the Colledge of Arms are to aſſemble at the great Gate of the Palace of St. James's, apparelled in their Ta-barts

Tabarts, mounted on Horſeback; when Proclamation of his Majeſty's Declaration of War againſt Spain will be made with all the Solemnity cuſtomary on the like Occaſion.

From thence they march to Charing-Croſs in the following Order:

Guards to clear the Way.

Conſtables and Beadles, two and two, bare-headed, with Staves.

The High Conſtable.

Officers of the High Bailiff of Weſtminſter.

The High Bailiff.

The firſt Troop of Horſe Grenadier Guards commanded by Lieutenant General Dormer.

Knights Marſhals Men, two and two.

The King's Trumpets.

The Serjeant Trumpeter, bearing his Mace.

Purſuivants and Heralds, two and two.

Norroy King at Arms, having on each Side a Serjeant at Arms with Maces.

Garter, Principal King at Arms.

The fourth Troop of Horſe Guards, led by the Right Honourable Lord Viſcount Shannon, Field-Marſhal of all his Majeſty's Forces.

From Charing-Croſs they will march to Temple-Bar, where they will be received by the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Sheriffs of this City, when the Proclamation will be made a third time, over againſt Chancery-lane End; after which the March will be continued to the Place where the Croſs formerly ſtood in Cheapſide, where the Proclamation will be made a fourth time, from thence they will march to the Royal Exchange, where the Proclamation will be made the fifth and laſt time, (in Change-time.)

War againſt the ſaid Kingdom will likewiſe be declar'd at the ſame time in all the Cities and Market-Towns in England, and alſo on Board all His Majeſty's Ships of War.

They write from the Hague, that the Britiſh Ambaſſador there has communicated to the States General, the Reſolution of the Britiſh Court, not to hearken any more to the amuſing Propoſitions of Peace, or Mediation with Spain, but to procure itſelf by Force of Arms an ample Satisfaction for all the Damages it has ſuſtain'd. He at the ſame Time declared to them, that the Britiſh Nation was by no Means intimidated with the Threats of France aſſiſting Spain, not doubting but that the Way of Arms would be more efficacious than that of Negociation. His Excellency likewiſe told their High Mightineſſes, that they had miſ-interpreted the Propoſition made by the Court of Great-Britain to the Republick to put itſelf in a Situation of acting, not intending thereby to perſuade it to enter into a War with the King of Spain, but that in Caſe Great-Britain ſhould have Occaſion to employ all her Maritime Forces againſt that or any other Power, ſhe might be ſupplied with Dutch Veſſels to cruiſe on the Britiſh Coaſts.

CHARLES-TOWN, Dec. 29.

'Tis confidently reported, that the Czarina has offer'd his Britannick Majeſty, to have in Readineſs 50,000 of her Men for the Service of Great-Britain in Caſe of Need.

'Tis ſtrongly reported here, that Admiral Haddock has taken and brought into Portſmouth, two very rich Galleons, but we have not yet received any Confirmation thereof.

On Sunday laſt arrived here his Majeſty's Ship the Squirrel, from on a Cruiſe.

As did alſo on Monday laſt his Majeſty's Sloop the Spence.

And Yeſterday ſail'd on a Cruiſe his Majeſty's Ship the Tartar Pink.

Thurſday laſt being St. John's Day, the Ancient and Honourable Society of FREE and ACCEPTED MASONS met at the Houſe of Mr. John Houghton Maſter of Solomon's Lodge, and from thence proceeded to the Houſe of James Wright Eſq; Provincial Grand Maſter, and from thence to Church, and after Divine Service, came to the Houſe of Mr. Charles Shepheard, where they choſe the following Officers for the enſuing Year.
